PARIS GIRL IN CARLISLE SHOOTING

While on his way to deliver a note to a Paris girl by the name of Dunaway, at the home of Ida Arnold, in Carlisle, Lloyd Reed, of Carlisle, was shot in the back with a shotgun. Simon Wasson later admitted doing the shooting, and was held to await the action of the grand jury. He waived examining trial and was released on bond.

According to his reported statement Reed was merely acting as messenger. It was said that an argument arose at the home, and that Reed was ordered to leave the house, and when about fifty yards away was shot in the back.

Wasson, Ida Arnold, her daughter, Pencil Arnold, and the Dunaway girl, whose home is in Paris, were arrested and placed in jail. The three women were tried in the County Court at Carlisle, Tuesday, and released on condition that they leave Carlisle.

PARIS MAN VICTIM OF HOLD-UP

A bold attempt at hold-up, followed by the shooting of the intended victim, was staged in the foot bridge over Houston creek, under the Louisville & Nashville railroad bridge, Wednesday night.

Charlie Robinson, a young white man in the employ of the Louisville & Nashville, was returning from his work to his home near the Paris jail, at the foot of Main street. In the dim light he saw a man approaching, and heard a demand for him to throw up his hands. The young man being frightened, began to run, instead of complying with the demand. The hold-up man, described as a stockily built negro, fired one shot, the bullet passing through the left arm of Robinson, who continued to run.

A search of the neighborhood was made later in the evening by the police, but to no avail. Robinson was unable to give an accurate description of the highwayman, other than he was a heavy-set negro.

"GREENBACK SHOWER"

Edmund Harp, employe of a Paris feed store, started in an automobile to make a deposit in a local bank. As he alighted from the machine, a gust of wind caught him, blowing the bank book from his hand, and scattering the greenbacks in every direction. Scores of people aided in recovering the money, but a recount showed a shortage of $36, which has not been found.

RIB BROKEN IN FALL

Several days ago while in the bath room of his home on Houston avenue, E. M. Wheeler, of the E. M. Wheeler Furniture Co., was seized with a fainting spell, and fell to the floor, striking his head and side against the edge of the tub. One rib in his right side was broken. He has been confined to his home since, and shows very little improvement.

BOURBON COUNTY SCHOOL FARM FAIR

The Bourbon County High School Agricultural Fair will be held at Millersburg to-day, Friday, October 13. The fair, promoted by the agricultural clubs of the County High School at Millersburg, is under the direction of Prof. J. W. Lancaster, principal of the school.

With exhibits in various departments embracing livestock, farm products and women's handiwork the fair has drawn hundreds of entries and prizes totalling several hundred dollars will be awarded. The fair is being given for the purpose of stimulating interest in improved agriculture and schools and has the hearty co-operation of the local, county and State agricultural agencies.

The fair will be held in the school gymnasium, the judging of the exhibits beginning at eight o'clock this morning.

PROMINENT MASON, BANKER DIES IN RICHMOND

Robert Rodes Burnam, Sr., 64 years old, one of the leading citizens of Richmond, died at his home in that city, Tuesday as the result of a stroke or apoplexy suffered Sunday morning.

Mr. Burnam was cashier of the Madison National Bank, which office he held for 25 years. He had served as elder in the First Presbyterian church and as superintendent of the Sunday school for the same length of time.

He was prominent in all branches of Masonry in the State and county. He was a past grand master of the grand lodge of Kentucky, past high priest of the grand chapter of Kentucky, past grand commander of the grand commandery of Kentucky, and had held first offices in all the local Masonic organizations.

He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Barnum, three sons, Sam Park Barnum, R. R. Burnam, Jr., and William S. Burnam, two sisters, Mrs. Waller Bennett and Miss Lucia Barnum, and one brother, Thomas S. Burnam.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted at the family home by his pastor, Rev. Dr. R. L. Tilford. The committal services at the grave were conducted by the Richmond lodge of Masons.

RELIGIOUS

A Resume of Events in Religious Circles For Present and Future

—The Kentucky Synod of the Presbyterian church will convene next Tuesday, October 17, at Harlan, Ky.

—Rev. T. E. Nennis, of Lagrange, will fill the pulpit at the Paris Baptist church, Sunday morning and evening. He is an eloquent speaker. Come out and hear him.

—Services Sunday morning at the usual hours at St. Peter's Episcopal church, Rev. W. S. Cain, rector. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m., and preaching at 10:45 a. m. Everyone cordially invited to attend.

—The revival meeting in progress at the Stony Point school house, conducted by Rev. Wiggins, will continue through the week. Preaching Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock by the pastor.

—The Cynthiana Presbyterian church, with a resident membership of 140, has pledged $5,500 to the Christian Educational Campaign for $1,000,000 for the Presbyterian colleges, mountain schools and orphanages in the State.

—Rev. Carl Agee, former pastor of the Little Rock Christian church, in this county, has resigned the pastorate of the Christian church at Lawrenceburg to accept a call to a larger field with the congregation of a Philadelphia church.

—Announcement was officially made Wednesday that the Presbyterians of Frankfort had pledged over $25,000 in the Statewide movement for Christian education now being conducted by that church. It was announced at the same time that over $300,000 had been raised to date by the cities in this work, in which nine Presbyterian institutions will participate, and in which the $1,000,000 fund will be distributed.

—The Blue Grass B. Y. P. U., which recently closed its sessions at Winchester, adopted formal resolutions, thanking the papers of the State and the citizens of Winchester for courtesies extended; placing themselves on record against so-called modern evils, card playing, racing, dancing, etc.; advocating enforcement of prohibition; and agreeing not to support any candidate for Legislature unless he is against race track gambling.

—The subject for the Sunday morning sermon at the Presbyterian church, will be "You Can Not Ignore Him." If there is any one who feels that they can get along without Christ, a cordial invitation is given that person to attend this service. The church is looking forward with a great deal of interest to the meeting to be held by Dr. Thacker. The organization for the meeting is being perfected. All of the energies of congregation will be thoroughly organized towards the end of making this one of the outstanding revivals in the history of the community. It will begin October 29. There will be no services at this church at night. The congregation will join in the union meeting at the Methodist church. Hours of service: Preaching 10:45 a. m. Sunday School 9:30 a. m., Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to worship with us.

A LESSON IN BUSINESS GEOGRAPHY

Those who live in Portland, Maine, may drink a brand of coffee that has a local sale. Those who live in Portland, Oregon, may never have heard of it. In Springfield, Mass., a locally sold coffee may be somewhat popular. In Springfield, Ohio, it is unknown. Citizens of St. Joseph, Michigan, may drink a blend of coffee that is in fair demand in that locality. To the folks of St. Joseph, Missouri, it means nothing.

But, go anywhere in the good old U. S. A., and say "Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand," and every one in that town who knows anything about coffee will say, "That's the lodge I belong to." Sold by

NEWS OF THE COURTS

In the County Court Judge George Batterton appointed Judge Denis Dundon as administrator of the estate of the late Mary Gillard, with County Attorney D. D. Cline as surety. Bond was placed at $500.

J. R. Worthington, who was arrested last week on a warrant charging him with stealing a dog some time ago from H. M. Bridges, was given a hearing in the County Court before Judge George Batterton, who heard the testimony of a score of witnesses on both sides. On account of the conflicting nature of the testimony offered, Judge Batterton reached the conclusion that it was insufficient to convict, and Worthington was dismissed. The dog, said to have been valued at $200, was recovered several days ago by Bridges, who found him, it was stated, in the possession of Worthington's brother, in Boyle county.

Stanley Asbury, of the county, was arrested by Sheriff M. Peale Collier, on a warrant, charging him with failing to secure license for a number of dogs which he was said to have had in his possession. It was stated that at one time Asbury had seven dogs, only two of which wore license tags, and they were females wearing a male license. He was fined five dollars and costs.

Newton Strother, colored, was appointed as administrator of Richard Strother, colored, with Maggie Strother and R. M. Gilkey as sureties, on bond of $1,000.

Robert Link, proprietor of the grocery at the corner of High and Eighth streets, and former member of the Paris City Council, who was arrested by Sheriff M. Peale Collier and Deputy Sheriff James Gibson, was given a hearing in the County Court Wednesday before Judge George Batterton. Link was not represented by counsel, but conducted his own defense, questioning witnesses. After hearing the evidence on the charge of having moonshine liquor in his possession for the purpose of sale, Judge Batterton imposed a jail sentence of thirty days, and a fine of $100.

During the progress of the case Mrs. Annie English Shouse was sent to jail for six hours for contempt of court. Although she had not been called as a witness in the case she persisted in taking the stand and talking, while in an alleged intoxicated condition.

Link, whose witnesses had testified that the liquor was brought to the store that morning by Mrs. Shouse, took an appeal of the case, and secured Claude Redmon as surety on his appeal bond of $100.

Roy Vanzant, who was turned over to the Harrison Circuit Court by Sheriff M. Peale Collier and remanded to jail on default of $1,500 bond, was released from custody at Cynthiana, when several friends came forward and furnished bond.

The Harrison County Fiscal Court at its recent meeting appointed B. F. Bedford as commissioner from Harrison county to act jointly with the commissioners of Bourbon county, and the road engineers and the State Highway Commission in determining the bridge to be built over Silas Creek, dividing Bourbon and Harrison counties.

BASKET BALL TO OPEN

Members of the young men's gymnasium basket ball classes at the Y. M. C. A. have decided to begin practice Monday. The classes will meet Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evening, with match games on Friday evenings. A committee has been appointed to work out a plan for organizing a local league among the members. A church league is one of the suggested plans.

ALVERSON SELLS PAPER

The Harlan Enterprise, which changed ownership some months ago, when it was purchased by Jesse M. Alverson, of Paris, has again passed into other hands, having been sold recently to William Baker lately of Lexington. Mr. Baker has assumed charge of the Enterprise as editor and business manager. He is a graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences of the University of Kentucky, in the class of 1920. Mr. Alverson's son, Lassing Alverson, has been very sick for some time at the family home in Harlan.

INCENDIARISM SUSPECTED IN GROCERY FIRE

The total destruction of B. H. Farris & Co.'s grocery and the damaging of the adjoining dwelling at Nineteenth and Main streets by a fire which broke out about two o'clock yesterday morning, is thought to have been the work of incendiaries to cover up another crime that of robbery.

An alarm from Box 35 shortly before two o'clock Wednesday morning called the department. When they reached the place the store was a mass of flames, and the adjoining dwelling almost so. By hard work the firemen subdued the fire in the dwelling, but could do little to save the store. Mr. Farris has $2,000 insurance on his stock, which, with the building, was a total loss. All the furniture in his home was saved with the assistance of the firemen, neighbors and volunteers. Damage estimated at $1,500 was caused the house. Both houses were owned by James Estes.

The flames communicated to a garage operated by Mr. Farris, which was also destroyed. Two cables belonging to the Cumberland Telephone Co., and one to the Home Telephone Co. were burned, putting all the telephones in that vicinity out of commission. A lot of furniture belonging to a Mr. Wilhoit, which had been newly repaired and varnished, and stored in the garage, was destroyed.

HURST HOME INSURANCE COMPANY LOSES SUIT

In the Bath Circuit Court at Owingsville, the jury trying the case of Jas. B. Ledford vs. Hurst Home Insurance Co., of Millersburg, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff.

The suit was the outgrowth of a fire insurance policy for $5,000 held by Mr. Ledford on his home at Bethel, which was destroyed by fire several months ago. The Hurst Home refused to pay the policy on the ground that Ledford did not notify the company when he took out additional insurance on his residence.

The case will be taken to the Court of Appeals. In this case there are several issues which have not been decided by the Kentucky courts and the decision of the Appellate Court will be watched with much interest by co-operative and mutual insurance companies doing business in this State.

SENATOR ERNST'S GRANDSON KILLED BY AUTO

A telegram received by relatives in Paris, Wednesday, from Senator Richard P. Ernst told of the death of his grandson, "Billie" Ernst, who was killed as the result of an automobile accident near Asheville, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ernst, parents of the child, who live in Covington, have been visiting in Asheville. Senator Ernst, who is making his home in Covington, has cancelled all business and political engagements. No particulars of the accident were given in the Senator's telegram.

The little fellow was an unusually intelligent lad, and was a general favorite. He was related to Mrs. Belle Brent Alexander, Hugh Brent and N. Ford Brent, of Paris. The body will be brought to Covington to-day for interment on the Ernst family lot in the Covington Cemetery.

INJURED BY AUTO

While en route from his home in Carlisle to Paris, George B. Linville, lost control of his machine, which ran into a fence near the side of the road between Millersburg and Carlisle. He was painfully but not seriously hurt, and came on to Paris where he received medical attention. Mr. Linville returned to Carlisle later in the day.
